

RECEPTION AND DANCE ARE GIVEN AT NEW HOME OF MR. AND MRS. A. F. KERR

THE engagement of Miss Frances Gillespie and Arthur L. McKnight was formally announced Tuesday night, at a dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kerr at their handsome new home, "Windcrest," in Manhattan Heights. In the afternoon Mrs. Kerr entertained with a reception complimentary to her mother, Mrs. J. W. Gillespie, of Hillsboro, N. M. Both events were the house warming of Mr. and Mrs. Kerr's new home. The initials of both Miss Gillespie and Mr. McKnight were embossed in gold letters on the dance program with the date of the wedding, March 8, between them.

The dance was opened with a march, led by Miss Gillespie and Mr. McKnight, while the orchestra played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin." Mr. and Mrs. Kerr were the second couple in the march.

The evening guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. J. W. Gillespie and Miss Gillespie. The ball room resembled a rose arbor, as pink roses with quantities of green were festooned everywhere about the room, and the lights were covered with pink rose shades. Punch was served in the ball room and during the evening salad and ices were enjoyed in the dining room. Throughout the house pink Killarney roses and ferns were used with pleasing effect. In the dining room the central table was decorated with a silver basket, filled with Killarney roses. A large butterfly bow of pink tulle ornamented the handle. At each side of the basket were silver candelabra, also tied with tulle bows, the candles shaded with pink rose shades. Roses in pink and white, and pink heart shaped mints in silver dishes were on the table, which was covered with pink and white dillies. The buffet was ornamented with silver and brass fern bowls, filled with Killarney roses and ferns and silver candelabra containing pink candles.

The guests at the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. Winchester Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Zach T. White, Mr. and Mrs. Dan T. White, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Myles, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sample, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Leavelle, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Myles, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. Claiborne Adams, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gaines, Dr. and Mrs. James Vance, Judge and Mrs. Julius A. Buckler, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Allen B. Rodes, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Marr, Mr. and Mrs. Will K. Marr; Mesdames J. W. Gillespie, Isabel Platto and Josephine Nations; Misses Frances Gillespie, Estelle Berrien, Anne Lee Gaines, Florence Cleveland, Olive Davis, Alma Jones, Emily Kemp, Mary Austin, Dorothy Morgan, Edith Morgan, Lemire Nebeker, Virginia Stewart, Virginia Scapple, Virginia Hill, Martha Thurmond, Hannah Hill, Mary Hill, Sue Crombie, Wanda Race, Margaret Davis, Marion Young, Floy Pence, Lydia Pence, Irene Laughlin, Grace Wingo, Mary Turner Nations, Wanda Race, Mary

In the afternoon at the reception the guests were received by Mrs. Kerr, her mother, Mrs. Gillespie, Miss Frances Gillespie and Mrs. Frank McKnight, who stood in the drawing room. Mrs. Kerr was given in pink pussy willow taffeta, the bodice draped with chiffon, embroidered with tiny pink and blue flowers. She carried a large arm bouquet of Killarney roses. Mrs. Gillespie was dressed in black satin with an overdress of chiffon and white lace trimming the bodice. She carried a large basket filled with violets and ferns. The bride wore blue tulle, trimmed with small black buttons. She carried an arm bouquet of long stemmed American Beauty roses, white silk with a lace robe over it. She wore a corsage bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses and hyacinths.

The drawing room, which is finished in old rose shades, the walls and the furnishings of the same tone, was decorated with quantities of candles in silver and brass sticks and vases of Killarney roses. In the hall were quantities of Narcissus blossoms. The library was decorated with candles and ferns. The breakfast room, where punch was served during the afternoon, was decorated with palms and pink roses. The large glass punch bowl reposed on a table decorated with southern smilax. Upon the ice cake in the center of the punch bowl were the initials "A. F. K."

Miss Frank Alexander and Francis Thornton Curry, of Santa Fe, N. M., were quietly married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Goring, on North Kansas street. Judge J. M. Weaver performed the ceremony. The groom is the son of ex-governor George Curry, of New Mexico. Mr. Curry and his bride will make their home in El Paso.

P. L. BUQUOR SHOTS MAN WHO ENTERS HIS STORE

Ysabel Corral was shot and seriously wounded about 12 o'clock Tuesday night by P. L. Buquor, at 329 South El Paso street.

The proprietor was asleep in the building and was awakened about midnight by the overturning of a rifle. He secured a pistol and went to the door. As he entered the room he saw two men climbing up a rope to the skylight which had been opened. The first man escaped, but Buquor fired upon Corral in the arm, he says. He fell to the floor and another shot was fired. Buquor says, which entered the abdomen.

The police were notified and Corral was taken to the emergency hospital. Wednesday morning in Justice J. J. Murphy's court, Corral was filed against him charging burglary. A charge of assault to murder was entered against Mr. Buquor.

The same store was entered several weeks ago from a skylight and a quantity of jewelry stolen.

A Fine Habit.

If you will only form the habit of visiting our Fountain regularly, you will have an added pleasure in living. Our dispensers are quick to learn your individual "likes" and our regular patrons are quick to learn our regular patrons. There is little choice between our two fountains, but you should certainly choose one or the other if you want the most refreshing drink that is served in El Paso. If it is a delicious drink you desire.

And Still They Come—
These New Spring Fashions

By express every day arrive boxes and boxes of new dresses, suits and hats—full of that "springtime savor" and breeziness. Our Second Floor daily is a veritable Mecca of fashion followers.

The Military Lines And Striking Simplicity Are Truly Reflected In These Spring Suits at $15.00 to $30.00

And no one can say otherwise when once they view these entrancing models of covert cloth, needle cloth, gabardines and wool poplins. The colors are sand, putty, Army tan, Belgium blue, Dreadnaught gray and black in all sizes. The clever bolero and Empire effects, also the flaring skirt are prominent style features. Prices are indeed modest at $15.00 to $30.00.

Brimming Over With Summer Airiness—
Spring Blouses In Endless Variety

Reflecting the more exclusive ideas of the foremost Paris designers, at prices that are exclusive with us. There may be wit in charging high prices, but there is wisdom in refusing to pay them. In this collection of blouses you will find all the better materials—crepe de chine, Georgette crepe, voile, silk and marquisette. All sizes. The new convertible, or two-in-one, collars are much in evidence. $1.25, $1.49, $1.98, $2.98 and up.

What An Eastern Fashion Authority Says of the New Spring Hats,

"No rhyme or reason is followed these days in the designing of hats. They are of every conceivable shape and worn at every imaginable tilt. In fact it's the tilt that counts. The hat of the moment must be tipped at the proper angle. The same wide latitude is allowed in colors that occurs in shapes and sizes."

Among our most recent arrivals are the "submarine" hat, in deep sea blue; a small one-sided creation in the popular Elizabethan pink, while a Chinese shaped hat makes its bow for favor in this first showing. Flattened flowers and fruits are shown on the small and the large hats. $5.00 UP.
